Greater Houston Retailers Charitable Foundation to Host 10th Annual Golf Tournament April 15 at Sweetwater Country Club
Benefitting Families of First Responders Who Died in the Line of Duty;
Individual and Team Slots Still Available

HOUSTON, Texas (April 9, 2024) -- Greater Houston Retailers Charitable Foundation (GHRCF), the charitable organization founded by Greater Houston Retailers Association (GHRA), is hosting its 10th Annual GHRCF Golf Tournament on Monday, April 15. The tournament will attract almost 300 participants who will play in foursomes at Sweetwater Country Club located at 4400 Palm Royale Blvd. in Sugar Land. Registration begins at 7 a.m. CT, with a shotgun start at 8 a.m. CT. Follow this link to register.

Total capacity for this tournament is 288 players, and openings for 21 teams of four (84 player slots) are available as of now. The cost to participate is $300 per person or $1,200 per team of four. The registration fee covers breakfast, snacks, assorted beverages, and an awards luncheon. Funds raised through tournament proceeds benefit the families of first responders who have lost their lives in the line of duty.

“Our fundraising goal is $200,000 this year. This tournament honors first responders who dedicate their lives to serving and protecting others. It helps us to advance our foundation’s mission of providing support to Houston area law enforcement officers, firefighters, and their families,” commented
